Sunday 29th October 2023: The Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

After listening to today's Gospel, The Greatest Commandment (Matthew 22:34-40), consider Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection:- Familiarity with Jesus' answer to the question about the greatest commandment blunts our awareness of its startling directness. Many answers could be given, perhaps singling out any one of the ten commandments as the greatest, the most important basis of society. A frequent answer to the question was and is the Golden Rule which exists in many cultures: 'Do not do to another what you would not have done to you'.

This is basically a selfish answer, protecting one's own interests. By contrast, Jesus' answer hits home, turning us away from self to God. 'Love' (not 'obey' or 'adore' or 'fear' or 'reverence') is the command. Love is not simply the warmth of companionship or of sex, but is the willing generosity of mother to helpless young child or daughter to helpless old parent, of wife to alcoholic husband or husband to paralysed wife, seeking no reward but the happiness of the receiver. Paul gives a useful check-list about love in chapter 13 of his first letter to the Corinthians. John's first letter provides a useful summary: 'No one who fails to love the brother or sister whom he can see, can love God whom he has not seen'.

How do we put into practice this commandment to love?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

A NOTE OF THANKS

Thank you all so very much for such a wonderful get together on Saturday evening, it was so special and meant the world to us.

Thank you to those who shared their musical talents on the evening and to everyone for your cards, presents, hugs and good wishes. Thank you also to those behind the scenes who made the tea and coffee and provided the opportunity for us all to share a meal together. These special memories will carry us through the difficult transition of our unexpected move to an unfamiliar part of the country. It has been an emotional journey so far and we appreciate the extra support of those who have called it an 'adventure' as that has helped us come to terms with the inevitable move.

We leave St. Mary's with heavy hearts and you will all hold a special place in our memories, thoughts and prayers for many years to come. St. Mary's is a prayerful and caring community and this is expressed in the many ways we have all needed to draw on that ever ready support, which makes it even more special.

Thank you Father Sean for giving us the opportunity to grow on our own faith journey and for always being there to support us. We take the many things we have learnt from you into this new part of our lives.

Bye for now and we hope we will all stay in touch through Facebook and even better in person if you are ever in the Southwest. We will certainly always be ready to pop the kettle on for you.

With very best wishes, Trisha and Peter.
